

PLC Session

In today's PLC session, you are going to consider a question and create a poster to explain your opinion.

PLC Session

Here is today's question.

First, take 2 minutes to just think about what your answer might be and why.

Would you rather be a hero for a day or rich for life?

Think! Commit! Justify! Reflect!

PLC Session

Would you rather be a hero for a day or rich for life?

What is your answer?

Why do you think this?

What reasons can you give to support your answer?

Think! Commit! Justify! Reflect!

PLC Session

Would you rather be a hero for a day or rich for life?

Today, you must create a poster to justify your answer. This means you must give your opinion and give reasons why you think this.

Your poster must:

- include the question,
- give and support your opinion with examples,
- be colourful and creative,
- include drawings.

Think! Commit! Justify! Reflect!

PLC Session

Would you rather be a hero for a day or rich for life?

Reflect on the poster you have made.

Since the beginning of the session, have you changed your mind at all?

Why might people think differently?

Share your poster with someone at home. Do they agree or disagree with you? Can you explain your opinion with support?

Think! Commit! Justify! Reflect!
